NARRATIVE:

Langarica, a Ghetto Boys gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include possession of a controlled substance while armed, carrying a concealed loaded firearm in public with a prior conviction, and violation of parole supervision. He has been sentenced to multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for possession of a controlled substance while armed. Langarcia was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 12, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Langarica qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance while armed is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, status as a gang member, as well as his current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
